HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR WORK

On each work it is necessary to indicate full name, name of school and grade/class (if students), telephone and e-mail address, city, country. Single students will also have to specify their school address, their age and the class attended. Competitors implicitly authorize the school to reproduce and use their works in the catalogue and in different media for no-profit activities. The organization cannot be held responsible in case of theft, damage or loss of the works. Works will not be returned or retransmitted to their authors. A catalogue will be printed, reproducing a wide selection of the works received after/following up, which later will be sent to competitors free of charge, previous formal request.

THE JURY

The jury of experts in communication, art critics and representatives of the school world will select 6 works among those received within the expiry date, according to their development of proposed themes and their effectiveness.

PRIZES

The following six prizes, will be awarded according to categories:

- BEST WORK - Kindergarten and Primary Schools: € 300,00;
- BEST WORK - Lower Secondary Schools: € 300,00;
- BEST WORK - Secondary High Schools: € 300,00;
- BEST WORK - Video or cartoon: € 300,00;
- BEST WORK - Artists: € 300,00;
- BEST WORK to satirical or humorous drawing on human and civil themes: € 300,00;

SPECIAL PRIZE: "Social responsibility"

- A 300,00 euro special prize, sponsored by Gruppo Bisaro, will be given to the author, the school or the institute who will submit the best work about the theme "Abbiamo in prestito il mondo" (we don't own the world, we're only borrowing it).

The aim is to identify within the broader theme of peace, the link between environmental sustainability and the preservation of the international human rights, as interdependent issues.
